

Expand your skills with Circle Training!

Join us for this on-line & in-person course:

Introduction to Classroom Circles & Restorative Schools

Restorative Justice Peacemaking Circles build social-emotional skills and promote character values. Circles are effective in improving student behavior, reducing classroom disruptions and resolving conflicts.

LEARN

- Restorative Justice Principles & Practices
- Use of Peacemaking Circles
- Key Elements of Peacemaking Circles
- School wide Restorative Practices

EARN

- One Credit option from University of Sioux Falls

Course Details

- 15 Contact hours in two ways, on-line & in-person
- 8 hours on-line. Provided in 4 sections, one section a week from March 4th to March 25th (course registration deadline is 3/25).
- 7 hour in-person, Saturday April 5th, 2019
 - From 9 am – 3 pm, light lunch provided
 - Winner, SD
- Cost to register $45.00 to Circle Space Services
 - Click here for Course Registration
- 1 credit option additional $45.00 paid to USF
 - click her for CREDIT registration

Training presented by Kris Schweigert, Circle Space Services

For more information: www.circle-space.org

To Register: kris@circle-space.org 605-831-0119