

You are invited to learn more about
juvenile delinquency & restorative justice.

May 17, 2010 7-8 pm
River Falls Public Library
Community Meeting Room
140 Union Street, River Falls

UWRF Student Chad Ernst will present findings of a study involving St. Croix Valley Restorative Justice Program (SCVRJP). Chad will link how Restorative Justice and Criminological theory explain and prevent criminal behavior among youth.

In January 2010, Chad participated in a UWRF course offering on Restorative Justice. He volunteered SCVRJP as part of an additional independent study course. Chad will present his findings using a power-point presentation. He will highlight theories and demonstrate how restorative justice addresses and prevents future criminal behavior.

The presentation will conclude with recognition of current and past SCVRJP board members and volunteers.
Light refreshments will be served.

RSVP's kindly requested. For more information,
