

Restorative Justice Peacemaking Circle Training Veteran Support

February 10 & 11 10 am – 4 pm

www.eagleshealingnest.com

Restorative Justice Peacemaking Circles hold potential for any community to provide support and healing for Veterans and their loved ones.

Peacemaking Circle process engages diverse parties in reaffirming, repairing and rebuilding relationships. This training on Peacemaking Circles will focus specifically on working with Veterans. Emphasis will include a focus on the roles of Veteran peers, Veteran supporters and non-Veteran community mentors. Restorative Justice approaches have been effective in reintegration, healing and transforming behavior.

Training provided by Kris Miner, SCVRJP Executive Director. SCVRJP has developed several successful Circle sessions addressing public health issues. Kris has been training individuals, agencies and schools in Restorative Justice Circles since 2006. She is also a trainer for Circles of Support and Accountability (MN Dept. of Corrections). She teaches Restorative Justice at the University of Wisconsin-River Falls. Since '08 she has been authoring the blog Circle-space. For more information: www.scvrjp.org, scvrjp@gmail.com

This training has been created in partnership with Eagles Healing Nest and will be held at the Nest located at 310 US Hwy 71 N. Sauk Centre, MN 56378

There is no charge to participate, if you are able, please make a donation to Eagles Healing Nest, typically the training fee is $200 and includes a training booklet and certificate of completion.
