Classroom & Community Circles
Foundation & Fundamentals

For teachers, administrators, clergy, non-profits, volunteers, anyone seeking skills and techniques in Restorative Justice or Restorative Practices Circles.

Wednesday & Thursday
June 19 & 20, 2019
9 am – 3 pm

UW- River Falls Hudson Center
2501 Hanley Road, Suite 200
Hudson, WI  54016

Join us to explore the key concepts of Restorative Justice. Learn the foundational elements for teaching and facilitating Restorative Justice. This foundation is necessary to implement and use Restorative Practices in school and classroom settings. Effective skills are needed to utilize Talking Circles and Restorative Chats. Circles & Chats are essential to implementing school-based Restorative Justice.

Meet your Training Team

Kris Miner Schweigert – Masters of Science, Counseling
- 20 year RJ Facilitator and Circle Keeper
- Restorative Justice Consultant, Trainer
- Severe Crime & Dialogue Facilitator
- Former director Restorative Justice non-profit
- Peacemaking Circle author, coach, blogger
- Professional Counselor – under supervision

Catherine Cranston – Masters in Educational Leadership
- 30 years teaching Elementary and Middle School
- 10 years Restorative Practices Practitioner & Trainer
- 8 years St. Croix Valley Restorative Justice Program
- 10 years Union Rep
- 11 years School board member (Vice President)
- Grandma & Hockey Coach

We will have a working lunch, please bring your own, local sub shops nearby. Light Refreshments will be served. Registration is $300 for both days, includes training materials.

To Register:  https://paypal.me/Hudsonjune19?locale.x=en_US

Please contact Kris at 605-831-0119 or Kris@circle-space.org or Cathycranston@hotmail.com for more info.

Register Early
Limited Seats!